University of Cape Town

Digital Curation

The Library and Information Studies Centre is opening its Master's course in Digital Curation (NQF Level 9, 48 credits) to occasional students.

Course begins: 25 July 2014

Duration: Blended learning over 12 weeks; 2 contact weeks at UCT campus (in weeks 3 and 10) and weekly online seminars. This makes the course ideal for students based outside of Cape Town or South Africa.

Coverage:
- Curatorship, Ethics, Governance and Policy
- Information Theory and Sense-Making
- Technology Principles: Information Encoding and Processing
- Supporting Technology and Infrastructure
- Metadata Access and Standards
- Collection Management and Lifecycles
- Research Data Management
- Curating in the Digital Media: Text, Audiovisual and Images

Facilitated by leading local experts.

Entry requirements: NQF level 8 (Honours or equivalent)

Application: Tasneem Salie via email: tasneem.salie@uct.ac.za or tel. 021 650 4546 by 25 June 2014

www.ayandambanga.co.za

118345/REV

www.uct.ac.za