

Occasional Courses for 2015

UCT's Library and Information Studies Centre is opening two of its Master's courses (NQF Level 9) to occasional students. The blended learning format (weekly online seminars complemented by limited contact time on campus) makes the courses ideal for students based outside of Cape Town.

DIGITAL CURATION (48 CREDITS)

Duration of 12 weeks, starting 24 July 2015
2 contact weeks on campus (3 days each week)

Coverage:

- Curatorship, Ethics and Governance • Principles of Information and IT
- Metadata Access and Standards • Collection Management and Lifecycles • Digital Media

To apply, visit <http://applyonline.uct.ac.za>
Closing date: 30 June 2015 • Registration: 13 July 2015

RESEARCH DATA MANAGEMENT (24 CREDITS)

Duration of 6 weeks, starting 11 September 2015
1 contact week on campus (3 days)

Coverage:

- Curation Lifecycle Models • Data Management Planning
- Policy Analysis and Development • Challenges to Data Curation
(with input from the Digital Curation Centre UK)

To apply, visit: <http://applyonline.uct.ac.za>
Closing date: 22 August 2015 • Registration: 3 September 2015

Courses will be facilitated by leading local experts

Entry requirements: NQF level 8 (Honours or equivalent)

Enquiries: Andrea Thornton e-mail: lisc@uct.ac.za or tel. 021 650 4546

University of Cape Town

www.uct.ac.za